YourCareer, October 2017

Autumn term careers fairs

Explore tomorrow at our upcoming careers fairs, where a wide range of employers will be there to meet you. Find opportunities for graduate jobs and internships, and get ahead by networking and making contacts for the future. Confused about your career? Come and talk to us for advice and guidance.

Grads Love Bristol careers fair and networking event

Love Bristol and want to stay after you graduate? Come along and meet local employers over a glass of bubbly and canapes: Monday 30th October, 6.15 pm - 8.30 pm at Bristol Museum.

Public and third sector week

New this year! Gain insight into working for public sector organisations and charities by attending our events and workshops. Hear from professionals working in these areas, ask any burning questions, and learn how to develop the skills you will need to find and apply for roles.

Competition round 1 - IDEAS!

Round 1 of our flagship University of Bristol enterprise competition, the NEC, is open for applications. Funding of up to £500 is available to trial and test your ideas. For more information see the NEC website.

Global opportunities fair

Interested in studying, working or volunteering abroad? The Global Opportunities Fair is the perfect way to find out more about the options open to you. Meet fellow Bristol students who have returned from their own year abroad, attend talks about how to find employers overseas, and learn about volunteer opportunities available through the University. Booking not required.

Trendence survey

Which employers do you like? How are you feeling about your future career? Enter the Trendence survey and you could win a £100 Amazon gift card (given away every week) or an iPad Pro! All answers are anonymous, and the survey deadline is 12 January 2018.

Internships and work experience week

Come to our new event 'Meeting students who've done internships and work experience' on 8 November, 4.30 pm -6.00 pm. Students will share their inspiring stories and be available for questions. Other events include 'How to sell your part-time work' and 'Preparing for your internship'. Bookings open 23 October.
